SON OF KAISER WEDS DUCHESS AMID SPLENDOR

Empress Crowns the Bride and Nation's Guns Tell Event to the People.

BERLIN, Oct. 22.-Duchess Alexandra Victoria of Schleswig-Holstein, daughter of Prince Frederick, Duke of Schleswig-Holstein, was married in the chapel of the imperial palace at 5 o'clock this afternoon to Prince August Wilhelm of Prussia, fourth son of Emperor William. The ceremony was witnessed by the members of the imperial family and some fifty Princes and Princesses of the minor German royal houses. The Chancelor of the Empire, Prince von Buelow, as well as the other high state functionaries, the members of the diplomatic corps, including Dr. Hill, the American Ambassador, and the members of the embassy staff with their wives, together about 800 guests, also wore present.

The civil ceremony was held in the private apartment of the Palace, after which the Empress placed the Hohenzollern crown upon the head of the young Princess. The royal party then marched in procession to the Chapei. The bride was clad in a white silk dress trimmed with lace, and her train. which was richly embroidered with silver and unirteen feet long, was borne by four pages. The simple ceremony of the Lutheran State Church was per formed by Dr. Dryander, the court preacher, assisted by several minor ecclesiastics.

As the rings were exchanged the artillery in the Palace Square began firing a salute, and the crashing sounds were interrupted by the melodious chiming of the church bells. The Emperor and the Empress kissed the bridal

After the ceremony the royal party marched to the White Hall of the palace and held a reception to some 2,000 invited guests.

Prince August William is twenty-one years old and a lieutenant of the First Regiment of Foot Guards. His bride is three months his junior.

Moxey, Mathematical Wizard, Has Perfect Score as an Expert Witness.

In the second day of the trial of Charles W. Morse, the former "Ice title holder, who was thought sure to be King," and Alfred H. Moxey. Replying to the first question of the Replying to the first question of the Hailed from Philadelphia and that he hailed from Philadelphia and that he was employed as a special examiner in the Department of Justice at Washington. Then he opened a Russia leather or tome like the Doomsday Book and began to drone.

Wonder is the word. Mr. Moxey is one of those men who know more about one of the mens' bogie. Then the currient began running the other way, and halving 4.

Another unexpected development was the defeat of Miss Georgiana Bishop, Metropolitan champion, 3 down and 2 to go, Miss Curtis lost the first four noies in succession, altered the next two, and tharley, fill down and 2 to go. Miss Curtis lost the first four noies in succession, designed them. He is small and slender and slightly stooped, as befits a man who spends his days—and probably nights—looped up over a desk. He has gray side-whiskers, cool, gray eyes and a cool, gray manner. He speaks in short, choppy accents which suggest coolness and gravness.

And he has put thirty national bankers in national penitentiaries. That is his calling-putting bankers who go wrong where they'll have to do right.

He has compiled the evidence agrinst thirty of them, using their own books mainly as his ammunition pile, and he has convicted thirty of them, thus establishing a fielding average of 1,000.
